Dear Kristen Nelson,

Referring to your email of 24 July and the questionnaire to provide information for the The European Shoah Legacy Institute's Immovable Property Database Initiative.

Finland has already given the following answer in 1 February 2013:

http://shoahlegacy.org/wp-content/uploads/2014/06/Green_paper_on_the_immovable_property_review_conference_2012.pdf pages 28—29

There hasn't been any claims for illegally obtained objects. All further communications should be addressed to Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Finland in order to ensure correct coordination of respective authorities.

With best regards,

Riitta Kaivosoja
