

Contents

Preface	11
Jan T. Gross
Introduction	13
Feliks Tych and Monika Adamczyk-Garbowska
The Aftermath of the Holocaust: Poland, 1944–2010
Welcoming Remarks, October 3, 2010	19
Eli Zborowski
Post-War Landscape
The Return of Jewish Holocaust Survivors and the Reaction of the Polish Population	25
Alina Skibińska
The Post-War Wave of Pogroms and Killings	67
Andrzej Żbikowski
Polish-Jewish Displaced Persons in Occupied Germany	95
Tamar Lewinsky
The Adaptation of Survivors to the Post-War Reality from 1944 to 1949	125
Ewa Koźmińska-Frejłak
Jews and Political Life in Poland from 1944 to 1949	165
August Grabski
How Many Polish Jews Survived the Holocaust?	205
Albert Stankowski
Revival and Unfulfilled Hopes
A New Life: Jewish Institutions and Organizations in Poland from 1944 to 1950	219
Grzegorz Berendt
Jewish Religious Life in Poland after the Holocaust	247
August Grabski and Albert Stankowski

Children in the Polish-Jewish Community from 1944 to 1968	283
Helena Datner
Yiddish Culture in Poland after the Holocaust	327
Joanna Nalewajko-Kulikow and Magdalena Ruta
Responses to the Holocaust in Polish and Yiddish Literature	353
Monika Adamczyk-Garbowska and Magdalena Ruta
Jewish Artists in Poland after the Holocaust	395
Renata Piątkowska
The Impact of the 1956 Liberalization of Poland's Political System on the Jewish Population	419
Grzegorz Berendt
The "March '68" Antisemitic Campaign: Onset, Development, and Consequences	451
Feliks Tych
Post-War Emigration of Jews from Poland: The Case of Kraków	473
Edyta Gawron

Remembering and Forgetting

Memorial Books As a Remembrance of Collective Trauma	503
Monika Adamczyk-Garbowska and Adam Kopciowski
Traces of Jewish Presence: Synagogues and Cemeteries from 1944 to 1997	541
Eleonora Bergman and Jan Jagielski
Concentration Camps and Death Camps As Memorial Sites to Jewish Victims or Mutual Polish-Jewish Martyrdom Sites	567
Robert Kuwałek
The Role Played by the Auschwitz-Birkenau State Museum in Public Discourse and the Evolving Consciousness of the Holocaust in Polish Society	605
Sławomir Kapralski
The Attitude of the Catholic Church in Poland to Jewish Issues after the Holocaust from 1944 to 1989	635
Bożena Szaynok
The Place of the Holocaust in the Consciousness of Polish Jews	669
Małgorzata Melchior

The Presentation of the Holocaust in Polish History Textbooks from 1945 to 2010	685
Hanna Węgrzynek
Holocaust Consciousness among Polish Youth after the 1989 Collapse of Communism	717
Jolanta Ambrosewicz-Jacobs
What Remains
The Contemporary Jewish Community in Poland and the Holocaust	761
Helena Datner
The Effect of the Legal Status of Jewish Property in Post-War Poland on Polish-Jewish Relations	791
Monika Krawczyk
From Jewish Culture to Culture about Jews	823
Monika Adamczyk-Garbowska and Magdalena Ruta
The Debate around the Jedwabne Massacre	847
Dariusz Libionka
Ethnographic Findings on the Aftermath of the Holocaust through Jewish and Polish Eyes	897
Joanna Tokarska-Bakir
Gratitude and Oblivion: The Attitude of Poles and Jews toward the Righteous from 1944/45 to 2007	947
Ewa Koźmińska-Frejlik
How Ordinary Poles See the Jews: Review and Interpretation of 1967 to 2008 Survey Results	995
Antoni Sulek
The Aftermath of the Holocaust: Poland, 1944–2010 Concluding Observations	1037
Antony Polonsky
Notes on Contributors	1067
List of Abbreviations	1079
Index of Names and Places	1085